The housing market

THE SHORTAGE OF NEW HOUSING: A FINDING SHARED BY MANY COUNTRIES BUT ONE THAT IS STRUGGLING TO BE FOLLOWED BY EFFECTS IN FRANCE

A shared observation and desire for action outside France...

- British Labour Programme: Construction of 1.5 million housing units
- Kamala Harris announcement: Construction of 3 million housing units over the next presidential term
- Creation of a Housing Commissioner by the European Union in July 2024

... which needs to be done in France...

- At the end of June 2024, 2.7 million households were seeking social housing, vs. 2.6 million at the end of 2023
- + 100,000 applicants in six months, and almost 25% increase in five years.

- Amount of healthcare spending directly attributable to housing shortage in France: €1Bn
- 1 out of 3 French people consider that their habitat is not completely or at all healthy.

THE SHORTAGE OF NEW HOUSING IS MAINLY DUE TO THE ONGOING DECLINE IN THE GRANT OF BUILDING PERMITS

Volume of housing building permits authorisation - Market

(cumulative over 12 months the whole France in number excluding pure individual homes and Mayotte)

Source: ECLN

- The real estate market crisis is above all a crisis of supply, not demand
- Home purchase aid policies, whether tax measures or lower rates, have little effect on the supply of new housing
- On the other hand, resources must be focused on the ability of mayors to provide more building permits
